Part III Statement of Program Service Accomplishments

Check if Schedule O contains a response or note to any line in this Part III Yes No

1 Briefly describe the organization's mission:

Our mission is to educate, disciple and develop young people to make their dreams a reality, glorify God, and use their gifts to transform their community.

2 Did the organization undertake any significant program services during the year which were not listed on the prior Form 990 or 990-EZ? Yes No

If "Yes," describe these new services on Schedule O.

3 Did the organization cease conducting, or make significant changes in how it conducts, any program services? Yes No

If "Yes," describe these changes on Schedule O.

4 Describe the organization's program service accomplishments for each of its three largest program services, as measured by expenses. Section 501(c)(3) and 501(c)(4) organizations are required to report the amount of grants and allocations to others, the total expenses, and revenue, if any, for each program service reported.

4a (Code:) (Expenses $ 140,427 including grants of $ 140,427) (Revenue $)

Ndoto is committed to the whole student. We mentor and train young people from preschool through university to dream about what they want to do with their lives and then pursue those dreams. We also work with their families and offer counseling and support. One of our big commitments is the investment we make in their education and school related expenses (uniform, shoes, bag, etc...). We quickly realized that if a student is not healthy, they cannot attend school. Illness is an inhibitor to a good education in communities like Obunga. As a result, we provide medical care to students. This can include everything from a doctor visit and medicine for malaria to long-term extensive treatment for cancer, as was the case for one of our students, Isaac. As a teenager in the midst of high school, he uncovered a tumor near his groin that ended up being stage 3 or 4 cancer. Over the course of three years, we exhausted all the country of Kenya had to offer in regards to treatment. Two difficult rounds of chemotherapy and several rounds of radiation, and though he is still weak and experiences a bit of pain, we heard the word we had been waiting to hear - remission. We are blessed to be able to offer thorough and consistent medical care as a part of what we do, thereby giving our students the greatest opportunity possible to excel in school and lay a great foundation for their futures.

4b (Code:) (Expenses $ 73,127 including grants of $) (Revenue $)

At Ndoto, people are important to us. This includes the staff we hire to help run the program. We have found very capable people of integrity to run our operations, invest in our students lives and moves us toward our vision and our mission. We have a small, but very hard working staff who take care of all of the needs of the operation and allow us to be successful with our students in Kenya.

4c (Code:) (Expenses $ 6,836 including grants of $) (Revenue $)

Another important program at Ndoto is our visiting missionaries. We have a number of people who come to see us and invest in our young people each year. The organization does what they can to ensure our visitors are safe and have what they need to function well while visiting. The visitors bring us resources and tools that are helpful to the organization. This is crucial to the life and exposure our program and students get when visitors come to see them. Some of these visitors already sponsor students, but many become sponsors because of the visit. These visitors also spread the word about Ndoto when they return home and are helpful in getting sponsors for some of our students.

4d Other program services (Describe in Schedule O.)
(Expenses $ 14,037 including grants of $) (Revenue $)

4e Total program service expenses $234,427

Part V Supplemental Information

Provide the information required by Part I, line 2 (monitoring of funds); Part I, line 3, column (f) (accounting method; amounts of investments vs. expenditures per region); Part II, line 1 (accounting method); Part III (accounting method); and Part III, column (c) (estimated number of recipients), as applicable. Also complete this part to provide any additional information (see instructions).

Prospective students fill out an application that requests detailed information about themselves, their education up to that point, their family's financial situation, and any children for whom school fees are being paid. Throughout our vetting and interview process, we visit and follow up with the student and their family members to confirm if the information on the application is true. The details of the interview is then documented as well. If the student is accepted, a file is started on that student. The file includes all money paid for that student's schooling, how often and when they are given uniforms and necessary supplies. This file remains in the Ndoto office and is used often. No money is given to the students or their families directly. Expenses are paid by staff directly to the schools and school supply vendors. All expenses are document and have a receipt or voucher to show to whom it was paid, when it was paid and for what purpose. While school fees vary based on grade, location and academic status, students and parents are made aware of what is covered by Ndoto and what is not covered. This helps to ensure the students are treated fairly. The list of what Ndoto does and does not cover is listed in a contract type document that all students and their parents must sign when they enter the program. We go through each point on the contract with the students and parents in person allowing for questions and ensuring clarity and understanding. When funds are used in Kenya, there is a process used to ensure transparency, honesty and the correct use of funds. In addition to a budget that is set and approved ahead of time, all funds are counted in the morning and evening in the presence of two staff members that do not have access to the funds at any time during the day. There is a locked, fire-proof case box used for daily activities and a safe and bank accounts used for longer term care of funds. After the cash is counted in the morning, it is recorded against the previous evening's count to make sure the numbers match. Then, a different staff member gets cash from the bank based on what is needed for that day's activities. This money is given to a different staff member who is in charge of dispensing the money and making sure it is to be used towards the day's planned activities. This assures there is not a lot of unused cash in the box or around the office. All receipts and documentation for the money used must be turned in to the bookkeeper each day. The bookkeeper never has access to the funds. The bookkeeper then accounts for the receipts and matches those numbers against the money used for the day; plus, the morning and evening count of funds. Funds withdrawn are tracked online, and a monthly report of all transactions is approved and signed off by the executive director as well. This ensures the funds are used properly and are accounted for as well. This also ensures one or two people do not have the power to collude and steal or misuse funds.
